

The window of learning opportunity has just gotten bigger

Open House at School
8-Mar-13, 7:30-14:30 hrs.

In 2011 the Swiss School Bangkok opened its English Profile. With an identical curriculum, students now can choose between German and English as their primary learning language. The unique educational model stands out through our distinctive German/Swiss curriculum with a strong focus on leading education quality and personal care in small classes. Our culture and values of quality, discipline and work ethic are combined with leading-edge teaching and learning methods.
